

Indian National Academy of Engineering

Indian National Academy of Engineering (INAE) is an autonomous institution supported by Department of Science and Technology, Government of India to encourage and promote the pursuit of excellence in the field of 'Engineering'. It comprises India's most distinguished engineers, engineer-scientists and technologists covering the entire spectrum of engineering disciplines. Nominations for the following Awards/Scheme are invited in the stipulated format contained in INAE website www.inae.org

1. INAE YOUNG ENGINEER AWARD 2010. Young engineers from Academia, Government, R&D Laboratories, Industry and Defence Services having age not more than 35 years as on 1 January 2010 are eligible for nomination. The criteria for the award is engineering research, excellence in engineering design, technology development and technology transfer which should have been carried out totally in India. The sponsor must be a Fellow of INAE or Head of the Organization/Institution where the nominee is working. The award shall consist of a citation and Rs 1 lakh in cash. The last date of receipt of nominations is 31 May 2010.

2. INNOVATIVE STUDENT PROJECTS AWARD 2010. Nominations are invited from Deans/Head of Engineering Institutions for projects/theses at Bachelor's, Master's and Doctoral levels for assessing their innovative potential and intrinsic merit. Not more than two best projects/theses in each of major engineering disciplines, at each level for B.E./B.Tech. projects completed up to 31 May during the academic year 2009-10; M.E./M.Tech. theses examined up to 31 May 2010 and Ph.D. theses examined and accepted/recommended for Award up to 31 May 2010, may be nominated by an engineering institution for consideration for the award. 3. AICTE-INAE DISTINGUISHED VISITING PROFESSORSHIP SCHEME. In order to enhance Academia-Industry interaction, INAE jointly with AICTE launched a Distinguished Visiting Professorship (DVP) Scheme during the year 1999. The Scheme envisages promotion of industry-institute interaction by facilitating the dissemination of knowledge through the expertise of experienced persons from industry to integrate their rich industrial experience with technical education. Nominations are invited from the Industry and R&D Labs. The Distinguished Visiting Professor will be reimbursed air fare to the Engineering Institutions; an honorarium of Rs 3000 per lecture day plus incidental charges. The last date of receipt of nominations is 30 April 2010.

NOMINATIONS INVITED

Shanti Swarup Bhatnagar Prizes in Science and Technology for 2010

The Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR) invites nominations for the Shanti Swarup Bhatnagar (SSB) Prizes in science and technology for the year 2010. The SSB Prizes are to be given for research contributions made primarily in India during the past five years. The age of the nominee for the 2010 SSB Prize should not be more than 45 years as on 31 December 2009.

The SSB Prizes are awarded for notable and outstanding research, applied or fundamental, in the following disciplines: (1) Biological Sciences, (2) Chemical Sciences, (3) Earth, Atmosphere, Ocean and Planetary Sciences, (4) Engineering Sciences, (5) Mathematical Sciences, (6) Medical Sciences and (7) Physical Sciences. The SSB Prize carries with it a citation, a cash award of Rs 5,00,000 (Rupees Five lakh only) and a plaque for each scientist selected for the Award.

Nominations addressed to Head, Human Resource Development Group, CSIR Complex, Library Avenue, Pusa, New Delhi 110 012 should be sent as per the prescribed pro-forma (25 copies) along with one set of reprints of significant publications of the last 5 years period on or before 31 March 2010.
