

Flowering Trees

Indigofera tinctoria L. (Indigo plant) of Fabaceae is an erect low-branched shrub with compound leaves. The reddish or rose-colored flowers are borne on erect inflorescence. The pods are linear, cylindrical and deflexed with 6–10 seeds.

The plant inctoria is the natural source of indigo dye.