

“I was just a precocious kid taking a college physics course when one day the professor told us that light ‘always travels in a straight line. But that can’t be true, I thought – it must be bent sometimes.”

“The important thing is to be a man of the world, that’s what I have tried to be, and to a small extent succeeded, but I like to do things for people.”

– Narinder Singh Kapany

